DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A pure, healthful, Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

When buying an article of food you are entitled to know exactly what you are buying —its quality and ingredients.

If this information is refused don't buy it.

Some of the low grade baking powders are advertised, but the ingredients of the powders are scrupulously concealed.

A housekeeper would not use a baking powder containing alum if she knew it.

It is well when buying to examine the label on the can. Unless it shows the ingredient cream of tartar, don't buy it.

Dr. Price's baking powder is absolutely free from alum.

It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child with implicit confidence. Sold by all dealers.

Two Years for a Drunk

Because he got drunk he will have to serve about two years in the penitentiary. This refers to William Henry of Ardmore, who recently was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and released on parole. He went to Moberly from Macon, where he was staying, got drunk and was picked up by the officers. He thereupon was held for the penitentiary officials who have taken him back to Jefferson City for violating his parole. He will serve the two years now.
